2017 Winner – Tom Wright, El Sobrante

- 1. Eligibility: Open to all California residents.
  - a. All entries must be home prepared and canned or packaged by the exhibitor within one (1) year of the opening date of the Fair.
  - b. Items which have been shown at any previous Marin County Fair are not eligible.
  - c. The same product may not be entered in more than one class. (Exception: Division 122: From My Cupboard; see contest rules.)
- 2. Local and State Rules govern this Competition.
- 3. Entry Forms: Exhibitor may enter more than one class on one Entry Form.
- 4. Number of Jars: Each entry shall consist of two standard jars of the same product. It is required that each entry have identical containers: one container will be opened for judging and returned to the exhibitor (see timeline); the other to be placed on display during the Fair. All products being considered for cash awards, which have not otherwise been eliminated from consideration, will be opened.
- 5. Standard Jar: A container specifically or specially designed for canning purposes. Other types of jars are not accepted. Note - Ball® Collection Elite® Platinum Wide Mouth Half Pint (8 oz) Glass Preserving Jars are acceptable. No paraffin seals. All canning must be in sealed jars with rings. Exception – Dried Products and Vinegars. See Class listings.

- 6. Jar Labels: Exhibitor's name, entry type, date and type of canning, Division and Class must be plainly and securely placed on the bottom of all containers.
- 7. Non-Acid Foods: All vegetables, meats, poultry and fish must be canned under pressure. Low-acid fruit, such as figs, should be made more acidic by adding lemon juice as directed in the University Agricultural Extension Service leaflet, "Home Canning of Fruits". Tomatoes and fruits, not including their juices, must be processed in a boiling water bath.
