

Adult Department – Special One Day Contest

14th Annual

MARIN FAIR PLEIN AIR

A Paint Out during the First Day of the Fair

Coordinator: Ellen Campbell, Novato

Judges:

■ Jonnie J. Baldwin, Penngrove

A native of Sonoma County, Jonnie J. Baldwin is an artist, teacher, and retired owner of Tomales Gallery and Anticipation Gallery. Jonnie works mainly in watercolor and acrylic on wrapped canvas. She has received many awards and her art hangs in several countries of the world. Her work can currently be seen at Find in Petaluma, Palmgren's in Petaluma, and on Etsy.

■ Tim Brody, Rohnert Park

Born into a musical family, Tim began clarinet studies at age 7. He earned his Bachelor's degree in fine art from Illinois State University (painting & printmaking) in 1975. Tim has worked in the healing arts (Neuromuscular Therapy) for the past 30 years. "Being present to nature's healing influence is the guiding principle of my life and art. My intention is to invoke a contemplative presence-freeing the busy, self-contracted, grasping mind into wakefulness, spaciousness, and clarity. The "quality of light" that permeates and suffuses the scene conveys feeling, emotion, mood, and mystery. I work entirely in pastel which, with its multiple layering techniques, is the perfect medium to convey these qualities." His paintings have garnered many awards including first prize and best in show.

■ Clark Mitchell, Cotati

Northern California artist Clark Mitchell, known for his evocative landscapes in pastels, has been designated Master Pastelist by the Pastel Society of America and Distinguished Pastelist by the Pastel Society of the West Coast. He has had numerous feature articles printed, most notably in American Artist, Southwest Art, Pastel Journal, and Artist's Magazine. He has also been included in Rockport Publications Best of Pastel, Best of Pastel 2, and Landscape Inspirations. Mitchell paints both in the studio and en plein air, and teaches throughout the area. His recent work may be seen at: cgmitchell.com

* The Dorallen Davis Award

The Best of Show Winning entry in Marin Fair's Plein Air Competition is named in honor of Marin County Artist Dorallen Davis. Dorallen Davis is an impressionist landscape/figurative painter. She is the Director and Owner of the renowned Marin Art School, instructing students in the colorist/impressionist tradition. She is also a founding member of Colorists of Northern California. Dorallen is well-known for her plein air style paintings. Her work is exhibited in fine art galleries all around Northern California. Dorallen and Marin Art School also host (locally as well as globally) artist workshops, and have facilitated other workshops with accomplished painters such as Manuel Neri, Cedric Egeli, and Jove Wang.
